

KILLED HIMSELF IN A DOORWAY

Young Man Who Feared Insanity First Destroyed All Marks of Identification and Then Took Carbolic Acid.

HAD BEEN VERY ILL
AND WAS NEARLY BLIND.

He Left a Note Telling of His Troubles and Directing a Friend to Call Upon a Man in the Bronx.

While ill and fearing that he was going mad, a young man about twenty-eight years old swallowed poison and died in the doorway at No. 62 East Ninth street to-day. He first destroyed all marks of identification on his clothing.

The man was very thin, and walked as though he was very weak when he was first seen walking east through Ninth street shortly after dawn. A few minutes later his body was found by a policeman in the doorway. In the pocket of the coat was found this letter:

To Whom It May Concern: After being operated on for a tumor I am still helpless, as my eyes will show you. The eye is almost blind, and I expect insanity.
I desire to end this life. If you may call it such, in this way, as I have only a few minutes to live, and I do not want to give any more people a life's worry. Yours, H. D.

Written on the outside of the envelope in lead pencil was this:

"Mr. Stoltenberger, Call at No. 4230 Park avenue, Bronx."

The man's body was taken to the Union Market police station and a physician from Gouverneur Hospital said that there were traces of acid poison about his ribs.

The man was very well dressed in black coat and overcoat, trousers of a light material and black derby hat. He was about 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighed less than 100 pounds. In his pocket was found a card on which there was no name, showing that he had been treated at the eye infirmary at No. 137 Second avenue. Both his eyes were in bad condition and one showed the result of a recent operation.

TEN HURT IN PARK SMASH-UP

Rapidly Moving Auto Crashes Into Heavily Loaded Surrey and Occupants of Both Are Hurled to the Ground.

Charles Teeshin, chauffeur for Charles E. Smith, of No. 135 East Thirtieth street, left the Presbyterian Hospital today, his nerves shattered, after having been in a park smash-up, which for a time was thought to have injured him fatally.

Slightly hurt and severely shaken up, were nine other persons, all of whom escaped death or serious injury by a hair's breadth.

Teeshin was driving his employer, Mrs. Smith and a woman friend of the Smiths, through the East Driveway of the park at a late hour last night. The park was poorly lighted at this point, and the lamps of the automobile did not make plain the path for any distance ahead.

Auto Crashes Into Surrey.
Driving in the opposite direction was Frank Cohn in a surrey. His team, high strung, was chafing at the bit, but Mr.
Cohn kept them well in control, because of the darkness of the roadway. In the surrey with him were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Weissman, of No. 39 East One Hundredth street; Mrs.
Weissman's two daughters, five and seven years old, and Wolf Candel, of the same address.

Suddenly the automobile, coming fast, bore down upon the surrey. The next instant the automobile and surrey collided. The surrey was hurled into the air and overturned. Every person in it was pitched into the roadway. The automobile became entangled in the other vehicle and, swerving to one side, also turned over. Teeshin was thrown from his seat and fell head first against a post at the roadside, where he lay unconscious. The other occupants were also thrown from the automobile, falling almost under the feet of the plunging team.

Chauffeur Unconscious.
The horses turned about sharply and, kicking and plunging, began running.
For several blocks they dragged the overturned surrey before they were captured by Mounted Policemen Fitzgerald.

The surrey was a complete wreck.
Fitzgerald found the Smiths and Cohn and their friends lying in the roadway. All of them were badly frightened and no one seemed to know just what had happened. Later the unconscious chauffeur was discovered.
He was hurried to Presbyterian Hospital, where for a time it was thought that he was fatally hurt. Then he revived, and his injuries were said to be less serious.

Calling cabbages, Mr. and Mrs. Cohn took their party to their home, No. 12 East One Hundredth street, where physicians attended them. Mr. and Mrs.
Smith and their companion also went home in a carriage. No one had escaped bruises or cuts. The wrecked surrey and automobile were left in the park.

ITALIAN PARLIAMENT OPEN.

King Victor Emmanuel I. liberal in His Speech from the Throne.

ROME, Nov. 30.—King Victor Emmanuel, who was accompanied by Queen Helena, reopened Parliament to-day.
From his seat on the throne at the Palazzo Madama the King read his speech, expressing liberal and peaceful principles, which were enthusiastically applauded.

The weather was magnificent. The passage of the King in procession to and from the Palace of the Senate was a gorgeous spectacle. The United States was represented by Ambassador and Mrs. Meyer.

HEADLESS HUNTER FOUND.
SOUTHINGTON, Conn., Nov. 30.—The decapitated body of James Bullin, a hunter and trapper of this section, was found on the railroad tracks here today. The autopsy is that Bullin went to sleep on the tracks. A widow and seven children survive.
